Please note:

- Orders will not be processed in July 2015. This is necessary to focus on completing the ACRE edition digital enhancements to and updating the ordering system.
- Manuals and other support materials are available as free downloads from the NCEA website.
- The price of the answer sheet or online option includes the production of the standard results report.
- Online options do not require the purchase of an answer sheet and booklet for each person completing the questionnaire.
- Printed booklets may be reused as long as they are in good condition and free of extra markings.
